(C) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2)(A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3)(A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(D) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

Case Action No. 2:07-cv-807-MHT

AFFIDAVIT OF NOEL DONALD MOORE

STATE OF ALABAMA)
COUNTY OF JEFFERSON)

Before the undersigned Notary Public, in and for said county and state, personally appeared Donnie Moore, who, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

1. My name is Noel Donald "Donnie" Moore. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein. I am over the age of nineteen years, and I am competent to make this affidavit.

2. I work at Expedius Envoy as a courier and special process server.

3. On November 17, 2007, I attempted to serve Truitt K. Johnson with a non-party witness subpoena for attendance at a hearing set for November 21, 2007, in the case styled Curves International, Inc. v. Linda S. Mosbarger, in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama, Case No. 2:07-CV-807-MHT. A copy of the subpoena is attached hereto at "Exhibit A."

4. I attempted to serve Mr. Johnson at 1792 Antioch Road, Wetumpka, Alabama, 36092. When I arrived at that location, the gate attached to the fence surrounding the property was open. I proceeded up the driveway and noticed two dwellings, a mobile home and a fixed dwelling. I first went to the mobile home and knocked on the door. When no one answered the door, I then walked to the fixed dwelling and knocked on the sliding glass door. A woman came to the door, but did not open it. I informed her that I had a delivery for Truitt K. Johnson. The woman informed me that Mr. Johnson did not live there. I then departed.

5. On November 20, 2007, I attempted to serve Mr. Johnson at the Natural Beauty Garden Center, L.L.C., 8617 US Highway 231, Wetumpka, Alabama, 36092. When I arrived, the same woman I had spoken with on November 17, 2007, came out of the office with a pair of scissors. She motioned aggressively at me and the passenger in my car with the scissors, claimed that she had previously informed me that Mr. Johnson was out of town, asserted that I was trespassing, and stated that she was calling the police. I remained at that location while the woman made a telephone call, under the assumption that she was calling the police. Although she did make a telephone call, it did not appear that she called the police at that time. She then instructed me to leave the property. I then departed.

6. Having earlier seen two police officers stopped on the highway as part of a traffic stop, I drove toward that location to inform them of what had just transpired. The police officer I spoke with, Sergeant Edwards of the Wetumpka Police Department, suggested that I continue on my way rather than go back to the Natural Beauty Garden Center.

7. I then traveled to the Wetumpka Police Department and filed a police report detailing the above-described incident. A copy of that report is attached hereto as "Exhibit B."

8. While filing the police report, I learned from the officer taking my statement, Officer Barris, that he had earlier been called to the Natural Beauty Garden Center regarding this incident but did not file a report at that time. He further informed me that the woman described in paragraphs 4 and 5 above is named Linda Lewis.

Further affiant sayeth not.
